

Edition 100!!

The Seniors Enquiry Line Monthly newsletter "Snippets" has just produced its 100th edition. Since our first edition in November 2001 we have certainly come a long way. There have been some regular segments – Community Information and What's On - that have stood the test of time. See our article below on the services that are offered by Seniors Enquiry Line.

New Publication

Produced by the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission, The Little Black Book of Scams, highlights a variety of popular scams that regularly target Australian consumers and small business in areas such as fake lotteries, internet shopping, mobile phones, online banking, employment and investment opportunities. It also offers consumers tips on how to protect themselves from scams, what they can do to minimise damage if they do get scammed and how they can report a scam. To obtain a copy:
